woman is accused of helping her boyfriend kidnap his children, then killing her daughter-in-law when she threatened to alert authorities. Investigators say 28-year-old Amber McGee helped 36-year-old Cecil Littleton Jr. hold the children captive while he filed a false report of child abuse against their mother. After Littleton was arrested Friday in New Jersey, police charged McGee with murder in the death of his ex-wife's 3-year-old daughter, Trinity Littleton.
Investigators say McGee had recently driven to Arkansas with Littleton and her 2-year-old son. They said McGee and Littleton had earlier that day threatened to kill the children's mother, Jasmine Littleton, if she ever tried to reunite the children with their father. New Jersey authorities say McGee and Littleton ambushed and shot Littleton's mother, who was shot in her home Friday evening. Police say Trinity suffered a graze wound to the shoulder and was in serious but stable condition at a hospital.
Meanwhile, investigators say McGee's 2-year-old son is now with family. They say he was taken by police before the murder in New Jersey. "He's devastated because she gave her life to save his life, and that's the only thing he asked for was her and he found out that that wasn't going to be happening so that's been devastating to him and it's been heartbreaking for everyone to know what's really going on," says Amber's mother. Neighbors say Amber had a good relationship with her ex-husband, but were stunned to see her at the couple's Arkansas home on Friday morning. Officials say she and Littleton became estranged after he filed a false report against his ex-wife for allegedly abusing their children. "We thought she was a good mommy, but we never would have imagined something like this or anything like this," says neighbor Tricia Thigpen. "Her children love her so much, and they just hope that justice is served on this and that he spends
